Share your unique Soul medicine with the world.

Gather together for soulful conversation about the principles in Lisa's award winning book, Answering Your Inner Calling. Lisa will share personal stories and practical exercises and meditations that will help you follow the guidance of your Soul to the next chapter of your career.

She will do a special Soul attunement on participants that is designed to remove blocks and patterns of self-sabotage. Additionally, Lisa will share a simple, nurturing home practice you can do to continue the healing and transformation long after the workshop ends.

You are welcome to bring a light lunch/snack.

Lisa will provide the delicious dark chocolate.
